United Way conducted the Community Health Needs Assessment in conjunction with Our Lady of Lourdes & Ochsner Lafayette General

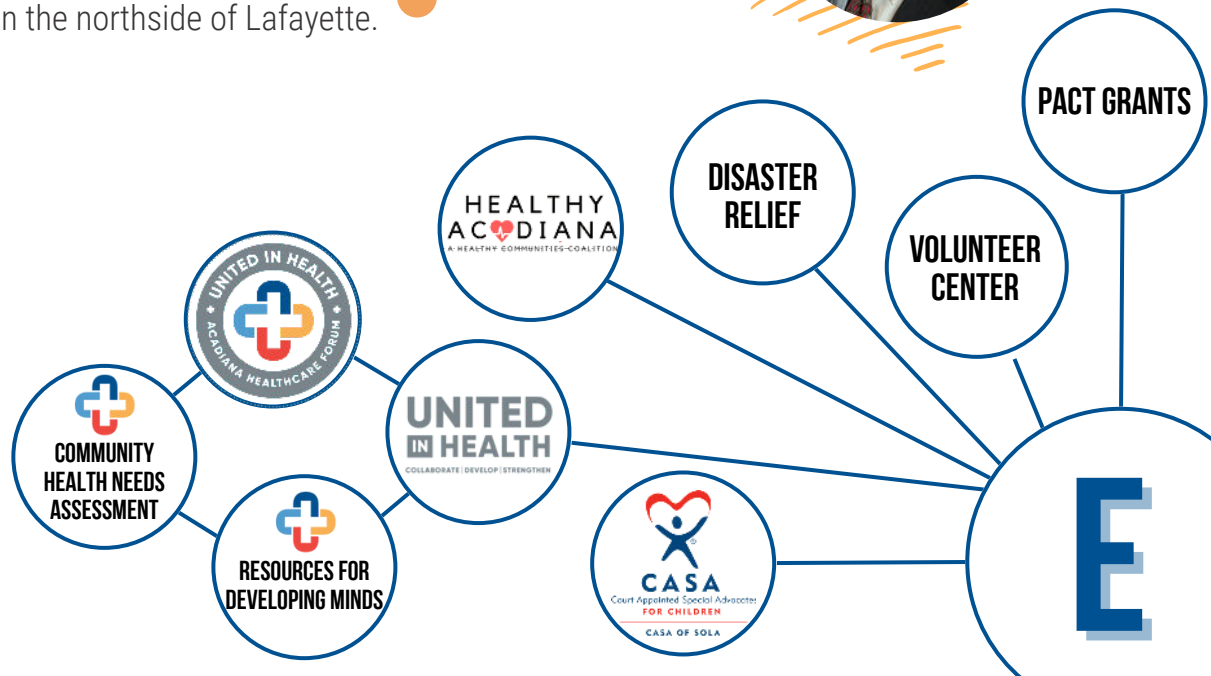

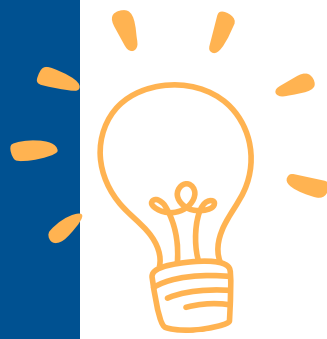

Six health organizations united to solve our community's health needs at the inaugural United in Health Forum

Resources for Developing Minds was born to increase access to research-based resources & prepare children to exceed learning milestones

United Way has sourced $1 million to increase food access on the northside of Lafayette.

We were thrilled to participate in the first United in Health event. My medical background was the experience in my life that helped lay the foundation for my passion for our community. It also made clear to me that we need to come together to solve our region's most pressing problems in order to help those in need. I applaud United Way of Acadiana for this event, and I am excited to see progress on conversations like "early brain" that are happening as a result of that dialogue.

I've always enjoyed assisting others and a great way to do this is by volunteering with non-profit organizations that help the community in various ways. I love seeing others being happy, supportive, and so appreciative of our efforts with the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program. We enjoy doing this each year and helping the taxpayers in any way we can.

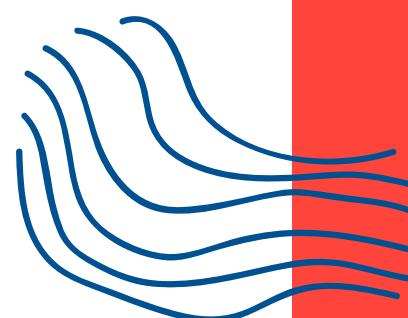

-Pat Cormier
